Ways that I decide if something is trustworthy online:	Ways that I check reliability of information online:
☐ show an adult	☐ ask a close friend if its true
☐ check if other trustworthy websites say the same thing	☐ check if anything sounds suspicious
☐ check were it came from	☐ tell your parent about it
☐ check who made it	☐ make sure it wasn't on wikipedia
☐ keep checking it	☐ check that information on trustworthy websites

My top tip for trust online:

Only talk to people you know in real life
