The backdrop features illustrations of pyramids, a hot air balloon, and a mammoth, with text including 'The Iron Age' and 'STONE AGE'.	Ruqayyah Year 5  A young girl with long dark hair, wearing a blue school jacket over a white dress, standing in front of the same educational backdrop as Asiyah.
Taiba Year 6  A young girl with glasses, wearing a blue school jacket over a white shirt and dark trousers, standing in front of the same educational backdrop.	Marwa Year 6  A young girl wearing a black hijab and a blue school jacket over a white shirt and dark trousers, standing in front of the same educational backdrop.

Organising pupils to help with the library not only ensures the smooth day-to-day running of the library, but also helps develop a sense of responsibility, achievement and self-esteem. For many children, a position of responsibility can be beneficial. This will instil a sense of pride, accomplishment and ownership in the library.

Mrs Thomas is responsible for the Librarians
